

THE BATTLE IN TENNESSEE.
Rebel Account of the Sunday Fight.
BALTIMORE, April 12. The United States

the schooner Harvard, captured and moving toward the schooner Whicomico. A copy of the Richmond Whig of the 8th was found on board, which has been furnished to the Americans. It contains the following dispatches in reference to the battle in Tennessee, all being dated on the 8th, and giving an account of the Sunday fight only:

BATTLE FIELD OF SHILOH, April 6,
via Corinth and Chattanooga.

General S. Cooper, Adjutant General:

We have this morning attacked the enemy in a strong position in front of Pittsburg, and after a severe battle of ten hours, thanks to the Almighty God, gained a complete victory, driving the enemy from their position.
We are on both sides a heavy infantry, our cavleader in chief, General Albert Sidney Johnston, who fell gallantly leading his troops into the thickest of the fight.

(Signed) G. T. BEAUREGARD,
General Commanding.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

MOBILE, April 7.—Special dispatches to the Advertiser and Register, dated yesterday afternoon, say that the battle continues fierce and furious, the enemy stubbornly resisting their fate, while the Southerners continue to press upon them with relentless determination, slowly but surely forcing them back.

Our loss is heavy, but our men are in good spirits, and the day is warmly named up to the victors in hand. All fight well, but the alarm was given.

Unionists and Confederate troops display great

Sunday Night—The enemy are in full retreat and the Confederates in hot pursuit. I have written from the enemy's camp and on Federal property. Large numbers of prisoners have been taken, and we expect to capture the greater part of the Federal army. We are driving them back on the river, and shall kill or capture the entire enemy. The battle is still raging with terrible fury.

We have captured Gen. Prentiss and a large number of officers. Gen. Abner Sidney John was told at half-past two o'clock. One of his legs was torn by a shell, and a Minnie ball struck him in the body. He died while gallantly and steadily leading our victorious troops.

Gen. Beauregard now commands the army. It is not known if this is the first fight. Gen. Beauregard was not in time to take part in the action. Gen. Grant was in command of the Federal forces.

SECOND DISPATCH.

MEMPHIS, April 7.—A dispatch from Corinth, dated yesterday (Sunday), says the great battle commenced at daylight this morning. The Yankees were driven back two miles. Our victorious columns are still advancing.

The First Louisiana regiment has taken one Federal battery, and several others have been General Prentiss, Grant, Sherman, McClelland, Polk and Smith are all captured. He says they have 33,000 men on the field, and eighteen batteries, nearly all of which have been captured. General Buell had a portion of his force at Duck Creek.

We have the enemy's camp and all their ammunition, stores, &c. The battle was a very severe one and the loss on both sides is heavy. The fighting is still going on. General Polk is in the advance.

Generals Prentiss, Grant, Sherman, McClelland, Polk and Smith are all captured. He says they have 33,000 men on the field, and eighteen batteries, nearly all of which have been captured. General Buell had a portion of his force at Duck Creek.

It is reported here that our forces are fighting Buell to-day (Monday). General Clark and Colonel Brown of Mississippi, and Colonel

Miscellaneous Items.

HYDROPHOBIA FROM THE BITE OF A SKUNK.—In the township of Richmond, Wisconsin, a daughter of Amos Jones, aged 10 years, was attacked by a skunk and severely bitten on the wrist and hand. A few days after wards the girl exhibited symptoms of hydrophobia, and soon died, in

DEATH OF AN OLD PATRIOT.—Nicholas G. Veder, the last survivor of the revolutionary heroes of Schenectady, is dead. This venerable patriot departed this life at his residence in Glenville, on the 7th instant, at the advanced age of about one hundred years, three months and thirteen days.

The refugee, named Morgan, who told such startling stories a few days ago, through the New York Tribune, about the Union feeling in New Orleans and the fleet of gunboats in course of construction on the Mississippi, has been arrested as a spy by order of Gen. Halleck. The proofs of his guilt are indubitable. During the last two months he has passed between Cairo and Memphis four times.

The McKinnaville (Tenn.) People's Paper placed at the head of its columns the following motto, which it credits to ex-President Polk:

No treason to mankind, since the organization of society, could be equal in atrocity to that of him who would lift his hand to destroy the Union."

The convict Toole, who murdered the warden of the Wethersfield (Conn.) prison, may be hanged in order to be hung. The life imprisonment to which he was condemned had become insupportable to him.

Dr. Reed, the philanthropist, lately deceased in England, has left a sum of money to form a fund, the interest of which is to be devoted forever to buying toys as Christmas gifts to the

Now that the way has been opened, the Italian refugees in Kansas are making preparations to return to their homes in Oberlooke county, from where they have recently been driven by the rebels. There are six or eight thousand of them—men, women and children.

NEW PLANET DISCOVERED.—A planet of the thirteenth magnitude was discovered on Tuesday morning, near the star Beta Virginis, by Mr. J. P. Tuttle. It is the third which has been detected at the Observatory within the past year.

The name Feronia has been selected by Mr. Safford and Dr. Peters for the asteroid, (72.)

G. P. BOND.

On Wednesday, Mr. David H. Chambers, one of the prominent glass merchants of the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., died at Chicago, after a short illness.

Moses Kimball, a Bangor lawyer, has been pardoned out of the State prison, where he was confined for forging a deposition to be used in obtaining a divorce from his wife.

The painters on the Great Exhibition building in London have "struck," because the contractors would not allow them half an hour for rest and refreshment at tea time when they had to work till late in the night.

On the 22d March flour was selling at $22 per barrel in Memphis.